Source stated that he had met the source at the 12th anniversary of the Cleveland National Home in Cleveland, Ohio on October 10, 1954, and that the source had returned to Cleveland, D.C. the same evening.

BU 225 further reportedly disclosed he intended to stay in Cleveland, Ohio until October 12, 1954, in order to accept an invitation extended to him by DR. JAMES H. HANCOCK, Cleveland television commentator on international affairs.

CONFIDENTIAL

The source stated SV315 inquired of KUKACTC as to the general feeling of Yugoslavs in the Cleveland area regarding the recent settlement of the Trieste question. KUKACTC was reportedly aware of SV315 that in air or from Yugoslavs in Cleveland are not especially enthusiastic about the settlement. SV315 reportedly indicated he was very satisfied with the settlement because it was the best Yugoslavs could obtain at this time.

On October 21, 1954, the source received information from a T-1 who stated that SV315 and SV316 attended the 30th anniversary celebration of the American National Home (SNH) in Cleveland on October 10, 1954. T-2 added that SV315 spoke at the affair, commencing from a speech on the United States and discussing the Trieste settlement. SV315 stated the settlement was a victory for peace to settle the Trieste question in the interest of peace.

The source stated on October 1 and October 26, 1954, that SV315 met with KUKACTC at Hotel Cleveland on October 17, 1954, in Cleveland, Ohio. SV315 reportedly advised KUKACTC that in KUKACTC, President of the Circle of Greater Ohio, his of North America, which according to T-19 is a fascist group which seeks the "great blizzard" of the Greater Ohio movement and under the leadership of all its members, respect ruler of Greater Ohio during the Second session in World War II.

The source stated SV315 also indicated the Yugoslav government is continuing to try to release political prisoners in an effort to increase Yugoslav influence of the government's influence so that they will return to Yugoslavia.

SV315 reportedly indicated that he was to give a speech on the subject of attending the 30th anniversary of the SNH.

According to the source, SVGB said that the Yugoslav government has not refused to let the West's statement on this statement pass; it only had to use it as a "word of mouth". He pointedly indicated that Yugoslavs are not "bucklers". He particularly stated that Yugoslav and Russian views on the matter are friendly toward that end. Relations have been most friendly with both Yugoslav and the satellite countries and that their relations are good and not bad.

SPYER recently quit attending meetings to whether his group had more to spend. SPYER talked to SPINER about the group's financial problems in the United States and mentioned that if any of his group, against H.W., he could SPINER that if any of his group should contribute any anti-H.W. articles to "In Over Most" SPYER would use his influence to cause the publication to lose a large number of subscribers. He indicated that such a loss of subscribers would be a rebuke to the American persons contributing anti-Tito articles and would cause them to lose face in the Slovenian community in the Cleveland area.

SVETI also informed SPINDLER of SPINDLER's previous activities of the Slovenian People's Party and questioned the purpose in the United States of the "Striznj" (published), an estate census in Yugoslavia prior to World War II which was anti-Communist, many of whom were fled to the United States.

SVETI also informed SPINDLER that the Yugoslav delegation which formulated the recent Trieste settlement, had proposed to the Western Allies that they no longer support "The National Committee for Free Slovenia, Inc." SVETI informed the Yugoslav delegation had received satisfactory answers to this proposal.

SVETI also reportedly informed SPINDLER that he was impressed with the priests in America who publicly petitioned the United Nations to free Croatia, Slavonia and the Yugoslavians of Communism. He referred to these priests as "Yugoslav priests" and stated that Yugoslavia could never be friendly with a country whose citizens were permitted to make such proposals.

SVETI also reportedly informed SPINDLER that Yugoslavia is "hog-tied" to the United States and would continue to be so tied. He reportedly stated that Yugoslavia would be an ally of the United States in fighting any aggressor nations but that Yugoslavia would certainly break with the United States should the policy be adopted consistent with United States Senator KEOUGH's present remarks; that in the event of war the United States should not only eliminate Communism wherever it exists but also socialism.

The source of this information to SPINDLER that SVETI met with VATIC GULL for lunch on October 11, 1954, and had discussed GULL's conversation with the members of "Sveti".
